

Asking Someone to Play

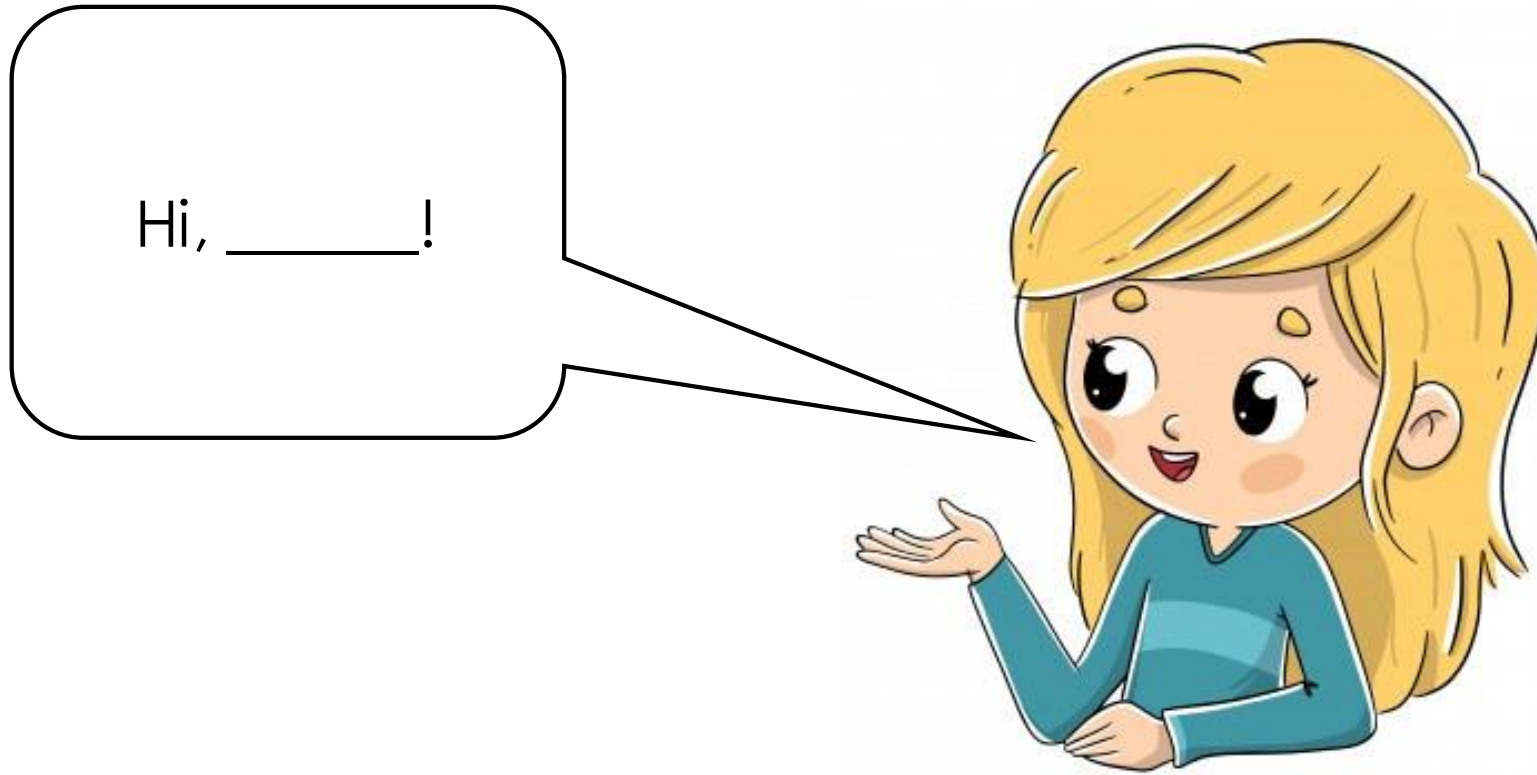

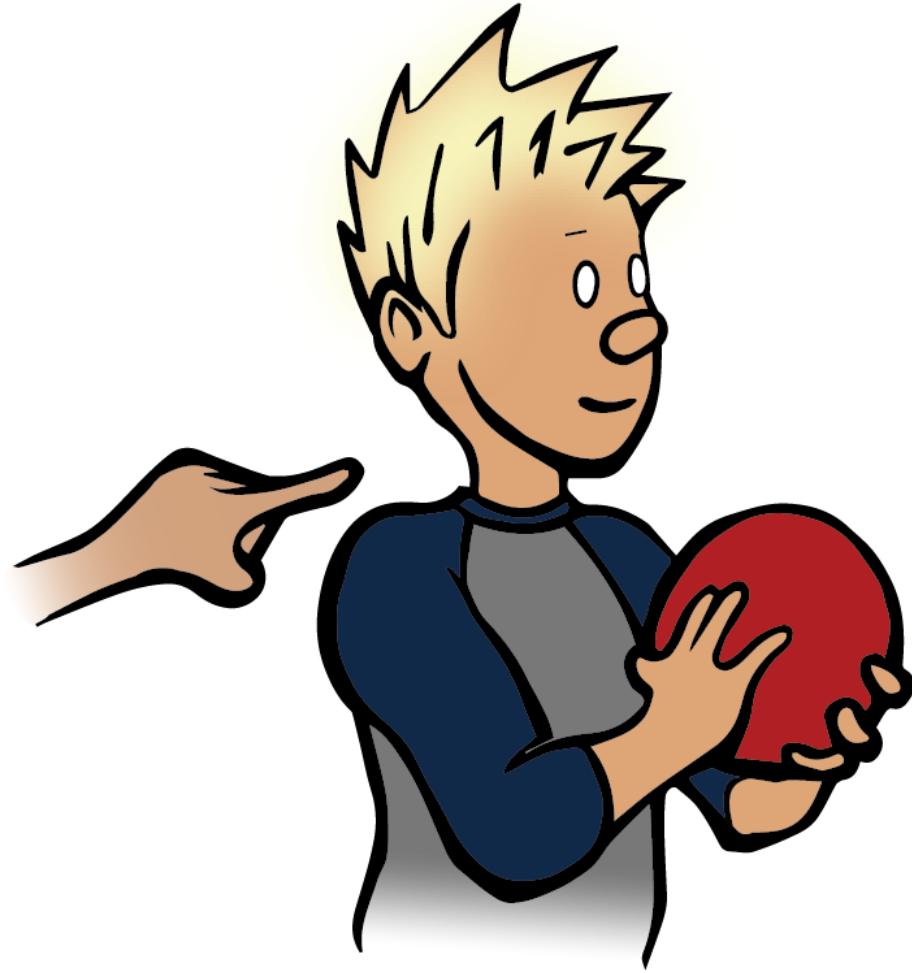

Playing with other kids is fun! There are lots of kids I can play with.

When I want to play with someone, I need to do these things: First, I look at the person's face.

Next, I say their name to get their attention.

I can tap them on their shoulder if they didn't notice me.

Do you want to play?

I can ask “Do you want to play?” or “Can I play with you?”

No, thanks!

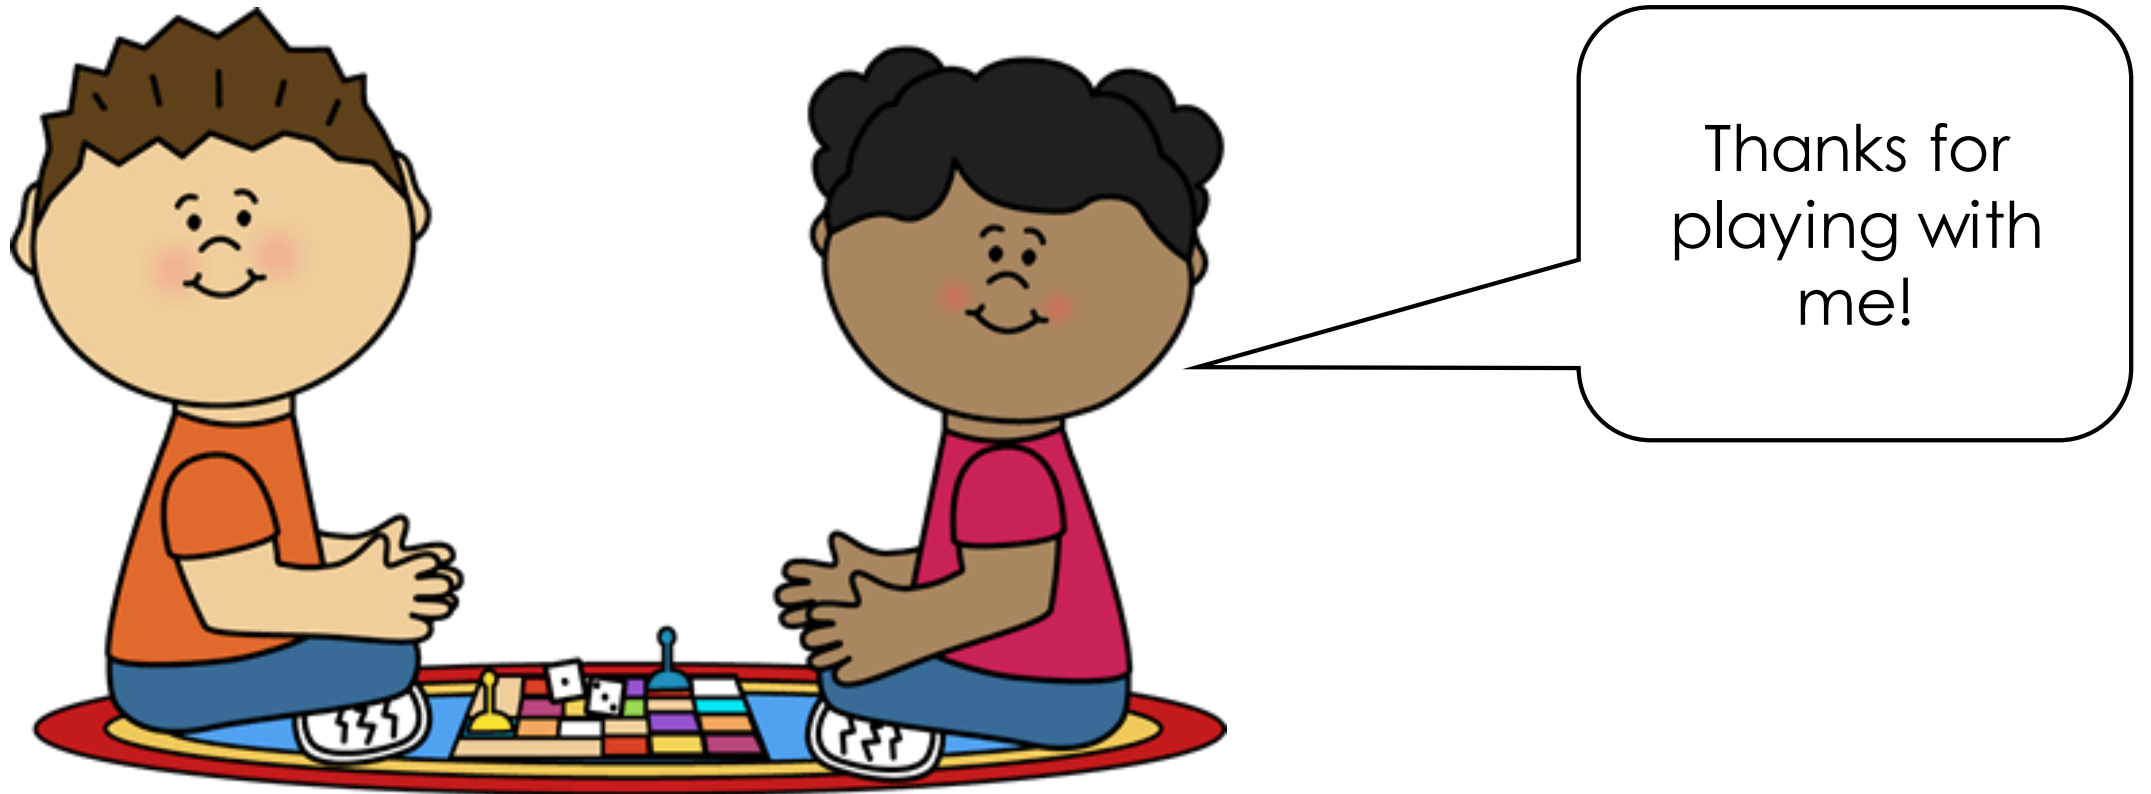

If they say "No", that's okay. I can find something else to play.

Yes, I want to play!

What do you want to play?

If they say “Yes”, I can ask them what they want to play.

When the game is done, or if I don't want to play anymore, I can say "Thanks for playing with me!" or "I'm all done." or "See you later!".

Playing with friends is fun! My friends will feel happy when I ask them to play!
